IN THE SUPREME COURT OF THE DISTRICT of Columbia, holding a District Court. In re The extension of Albemarle street northwest, District Court, No. 733.—Notice is hereby given that the Commissioners of the Distriet of Columbia. District Ceurt, No. 733.—Notice is hereby given that the Commissioners of the District of Columbia, pursuant to the provisions of an act of Congress approved March 2, 1907, entitled "An act for the extension of Albemarle street northwest, District of Columbia," have filed a petition in this court praying the condemnation of the land necessary for the opening of Albemarle street, from Wisconsin avenue to Murdock Mill road, with a uniform width of ninety feet, according to the permanent highway plan of the District of Columbia, as shown on a plat or map filed with the said petition, as part thereof, and praying also that a jury of five judicious, experienced, disinterested men, who shall be freeholders within the District of Columbia, not related to any person interested in these proceedings, and not in the service or employment of the District of Columbia to assess the damages each owner of land to be taken may sustain by reason of the said opening of the said street, and the condemnation of the land necessary for the purposes thereof, and to assess as benefits resulting therefrom the entire amount of said damage plus the costs of this proceeding upon the land abutting upon the said street to be extended, and also upon all other lots, pieces or parcels of land which the jury may find will be benefited by the said extension of the said street. It is by the court, this lith day of November, A. D. 1907, ordered that all persons having any interest in these proceedings be, and they are hereby, warned and commanded to appear in this court on or before the lOTH DAY OF DECEMBER, A. D. 1907, at 16 o'clock a. m., and to continue in attendance until the court shall have made its final order ratifying and confirming the award of damages and the assessment of benefits of the jury to be impaneled and sworn herein; and it is further ordered that a copy of this notice and order be published once in the Washington Law Reporter, and on six secular days in the Washington Evening Star. The Washington Herald, and the Washington Times, newspapers published in the said District, commencing at least twenty days before the said 10th day of December, A. D. 1907. Attorney Darr Calls Prohibition Motive Unjust.

COMMENDS PRESENT LAWS

says Residents of Any Neighborhood Have Power to Exclude Barrooms, and That the Excise Board and Police May Be Depended Upon to Maintain Order in Community.

"There are no better laws governing the sale and use of liquor and the regulation of saloons than those in force in the District of Columbia, to be found anywhere, said Charles W. Darr. the attorney for the Personal Liberty League, yesterday. "The plan to raise the license fee of aloons from $800 to $1,000 is. I believe.

Result of Local Option,

Any attempt to introduce local option Mr. Darr believes, will result, if carried, in one part of the city regulating what another part shall do. He maintains that under the present law the licensee is practically at the mercy of the residents of his own locality, not only when he starts business, but in fact every year
